already sold to the buyer; or
(c) entering into farming contract with growers who have a farming contract with another buyer; or (d) having outstanding debts with growers; or (e) buying tobacco from a grower while knowing that such grower has another farming contract with another buyer; or (f) acting in such a manner as to obstruct the Board from performing any of its duties, then, in addition to any sentence or penalty which may have been imposed upon the buyer, the Board may suspend the buyer's licence for one crop buying season.

25. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Board pursuant to section 24 hereof, may within thirty days from the date of decision, appeal to the Minister.

26. The Board shall have power to appoint proper and fit persons to be tobacco inspectors who shall have and exercise powers generally to supervise the arrangements for the cultivation, purchase, export and import of tobacco and who, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power shall have and exercise such other powers including the inspection of tobacco premises, processing plants, market centres, the taking of samples and the certifying of weight and quality of tobacco as are provided for in this Act or as may be prescribed.
27.—(1) A tobacco inspector or any other person duly authorised in writing in that behalf may, at any reasonable hour during the day time, enter any premises where tobacco is grown, processed, packed, stored or sold to inspect or examine the same for the purpose of ensuring that the provisions of this Act, or of any regulations or rules made hereunder, or of any directions given, or order made by the Minister, the Director or the Board are being complied with.

(2) The tobacco inspector or any authorised person may, for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any regulations, by-laws, orders or directions, take samples of any raw tobacco, found in or on any store, plant or other place or premises (including any land) and may subject samples to such tests as he may deem necessary.

(3) Any person, who obstructs the tobacco inspector or any other authorised person in the exercise of the power conferred upon him by this section, or who neglects or refuses to produce to the tobacco inspector or any other authorised person any thing, book or record which the tobacco, inspector or any other authorised person may request to be produced for his inspection, shall be guilty of an offence.

28. If any person adds or causes or permits to be added any foreign or extraneous matter to any tobacco shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding shillings one hundred thousand or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both such fine and imprisonment.
