(o) to hold shares in any other Corporation and to establish or acquire any subsidiary Corporation.

(3) No harbour shall be constructed by the Corporation unless prior to such construction a report of the proposed undertaking, and the advantages and disadvantages of any alternative undertaking, has been made by the Board to the Minister and has been approved by the President.

(4) For the avoidance of doubts it is hereby declared that subsections (1) and (2) relate only to the capacity of the Corporation as public corporation and nothing in those provisions shall be construed as authorising the disregard by the Corporation of any law.

(5) The powers conferred on the Corporation under this section to construct or improve any harbour shall empower the construction or execution of any works necessary thereto on land vested in the Corporation or on land placed at its disposal by the Government for the purposes of the Corporation or in the case of land not so vested in or placed at the disposal of the Corporation, only with the agreement of the owner of the land on which such works are to be constructed or executed, and where any land is required by the Corporation for the purpose of the Corporation, the Corporation shall make representations to the President and the President may acquire the land in accordance with the provisions of the law relating to the acquisition of land for public purposes.

15(1) Any authorized employees of the Corporation may, for the purposes of the Corporation enter upon any land and survey such land or any portion thereof.

(2) Where any damage to land is caused, by reason of the exercise of the powers conferred by this section, the owner or occupier of the land shall be entitled to compensation therefor in accordance with this Act.

16(1) Any authorised employees of the Corporation may, for the purposes of preventing the occurrence of any accident, preserving the safety of navigation or the safe operation of any service provided by the Corporation, or repairing any damage caused by an accident, enter upon any land and—

(a) cut down or remove any tree or other obstruction, not being a building, which obscures the view of any beacon or other fixed signal or which is likely to cause any obstruction or any danger to the safety of navigation or of any such service;

(b) execute such other works as may be necessary to prevent the occurrence of any accident or to repair any damage caused as a result of any accident.

(2) If any tree or other obstruction cut down or removed under subsection (1) (a) came into existence subsequent to the erection of any beacon or fixed signal or to the service being provided at that place, then, no compensation shall be payable in respect of such entry, or the cutting down or removal of such tree or other obstruction.

(3) Where any person erects any building which obscures the view of any beacon or other fixed signal or is likely to cause any obstruction or any danger to navigation or to the operation of any service provided by the Corporation, the Corporation may unless such person has previously obtained the approval of the Director-General to the erection of such building or has modified it to the satisfaction of the Director-General, apply to a judge of the High Court for an order for the demolition or modification of such building or, as the case may require, for the payment to the Corporation of the cost incurred in resiting or replacing any fixed beacon, signalling equipment or otherwise necessary to prevent such obstruction or danger and the court, at its discretion, may grant such order and may make such order as to the payment of compensation and costs as it thinks fit.

17(1) The Corporation, or any authorized employee, may for the purposes of the Corporation, enter upon any land and alter the position of any pipe for the supply of gas, oil, water or compressed air or the position of any electric, telephone or telegraphic wire or the position of any drain.

(2) Where the Corporation exercises any power under subsection (1) it shall give reasonable notice of its intention so to do to the authority or person having control of the pipe, water or drain and -

(a) such authority or person may authorise a representative to superintend such work and may require the Corporation to execute such work to the satisfaction of such representative;

(b) the Corporation shall make arrangements for the maintenance of the supply of gas, oil, water, compressed air or electricity, for the continuance of the telephonic or telegraphic communications or for the maintenance of the drainage, as the case may be, during the execution of such work.

(3) Where any damage is caused by reason of the exercise of the powers conferred by this section, the person suffering such damage shall be entitled to compensation therefor in accordance with this Act.

18. The Corporation shall not be required to provide to any person or authority harbour facilities or services ancillary thereto, either gratuitously or at a rate or charge which is insufficient to meet the cost involved in the provision of such facilities or services by the Corporation unless the Government undertakes to make good the amount of the loss incurred by reason of the provision of such facilities or services.

PART IV

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS, ACCOUNTS AND REPORTS

19. (1) It shall be the duty of the Corporation to conduct its business according to commercial principles and to perform its functions in such a manner as to secure that, taking one year with another, its revenue is not less than sufficient to meet its outgoing which are properly chargeable to revenue account, including proper allocations to the general reserve and provision in respect of depreciation of capital assets, pension liabilities and interest and other provision for the repayment of loans and further to ensure that, taking one year with another, its net operating income is not less than sufficient to secure an annual return on the value of the net fixed assets in operation by the Corporation of such a percentage as the Board may from time to time direct.
(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) -

(a) “net operating income” shall be determined by subtracting from gross operating revenue all operating and administrative expenses including taxes (if any) and adequate provision for maintenance and depreciation; and

(b) “value of the net fixed assets in operation” shall be the value of such assets less the amount of accumulated depreciation shown in the statement of accounts of the Corporation:

Provided that, if the amounts shown in such statements of accounts do not reflect a true measure of value of the assets concerned because of currency revaluations, changes in prices or similar factors, the value of the fixed assets shall be adjusted adequately to reflect such currency revaluations, changes in prices or similar factors.

(3) With the prior approval of the Minister, the Board may, from time to time, invest any part of the moneys available in any fund of the Corporation and which is not for the time being required for the purposes of the business of the Corporation in such investment as are authorized investments.

Borrowing powers

20. The Corporation may, with the consent of the Board or accordance with the terms of a general authority given by the Board, borrow temporarily by way of overdraft or otherwise such sums as the Corporation may require for meeting its obligations or discharging its functions under this Act.

Annual and supplementary budget

21(1) Not less than two months before the beginning of every financial year the Board shall pass a detailed annual budget of the amounts -

(a) expected to be received; and

(b) expected to be disbursed,

by the Corporation during that financial year, and whenever circumstances so require, the Board may pass a supplementary budget in any financial year.

(2) Such budget and supplementary budget shall be sent to the Minister for approval. The Board shall be bound to the budget approved, with or without changes, by the Minister.

Provided that with the sanction in writing of the Minister, the Board may make disbursement not otherwise provided for in the budget.
22(1) The Board shall ensure that proper accounts and other records are kept in relation to the revenue and expenditure, assets and liabilities, and other financial transactions of the Corporation and shall ensure that within six months of the end of each financial year of the Corporation, or such longer period as the Board may allow in any particular case, a statement of accounts of the Corporation is prepared, in accordance with the best commercial standards and any directions which may be issued by the Board, and transmitted to the Auditor-General.

(2) The accounts of the Corporation and of all officers and authorities of the Corporation, shall be audited by the Auditor-General and for that purpose the Auditor-General and any person authorized by him in that behalf shall have access to all books, records, returns and other documents relating to those accounts and other documents relating to those accounts and upon receipt of a statement of accounts transmitted to him under subsection (1) the Auditor-General shall examine it, certify it and report on it and shall return the statement with the certificate and report to the Board.

23.(1) The Board shall, within nine months after the end of each financial year, prepare a report upon the operation of the Corporation in that year and shall transmit such report to the Minister.

(2) The financial year of the Corporation shall run from the 1st day of January to the 31st day of December in each year. Provided that the first financial year of the Corporation shall commence on the date of the commencement of this Act and may be of a period longer or shorter than twelve months.

PART V

DECLARATION AND CONTROL OF HARBOURS

24. (1) The ports set out in the Second Schedule of this Act are hereby declared to be harbours for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The President may, by order published in the Gazette, amend, vary or replace the provisions of the Second Schedule.

25. (1) The harbours specified in the Second Schedule shall be compulsory pilotage harbours and all ships other than excepted ships, navigating, whether by entering, leaving or moving within the limits of a compulsory pilotage harbour, shall be under the pilotage of a pilot.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the following ships shall be excepted ships -
(a) ships owned or operated by the governments of the United Republic or the Government of Zanzibar;

(b) ships owned or operated by the Corporation;

(c) ferry boats plying as such exclusively within the limits of a harbour;

(d) ships of less than 200 tons net register;

(e) ships trading exclusively between harbours within the United Republic;

(f) tugs, dredgers, barges or similar vessels whose ordinary course of navigation does not extend beyond the limits of the harbour.

(3) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette, exempt from compulsory pilotage any class of ship either generally or in relation to any particular harbour.

(4) The Director-General may exempt from compulsory pilotage any ship in any particular case.

(5) Where any harbour is a compulsory pilotage harbour the Minister may, by order, define the limits of such harbour for the purpose of compulsory pilotage.

(6) The Corporation shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused through the act, neglect or default of any pilot.

(7) The owner or master of a ship navigating under circumstances in which pilotage is compulsory shall be answerable for any loss or damage caused by the ship or by any fault of the navigation of the ship in the same manner as he would if pilotage were not compulsory.

26. No ship shall, without lawful excuse, embark or disembark any passenger or goods at any place other than a harbour.

Provided that -

(i) the Director-General may authorize the master of any ship to embark or disembark passengers or goods at any place other than a harbour;

(ii) nothing in this section shall apply to small boats carrying passengers or goods from any place within the United Republic to any other place within the United Republic.
27. The master of any ship arriving in a harbour shall if required, produce to an authorized employee -
   (a) the ship's register and the ship's papers;
   (b) a list of the crew;
   (c) a list of the passengers, if any, showing particulars of their sex and occupation;
   (d) a list showing the deaths, if any, which have occurred during the voyage;
   (e) a list showing the stowaways, if any, on the ship, and shall also supply such other information in relation to the ship, passengers and cargo thereof, as such employee may require.

28. (1) There shall be levied upon every ship entering a harbour such harbour rates and charges as the Corporation may determine and publish in the Tariff Book.
   (2) At any harbour where there is a harbour office there shall be available for public inspection at such harbour office a notice specifying all harbour rates and charges applicable at that harbour.

29. (1) Where any harbour charges are owing in respect of any ship, an authorized employee may arrest the ship and the tackle, apparel and furniture thereof and may detain it until the amount of such charges is paid.
   (2) Where, after such arrest, any such harbour charges remain unpaid for a period of seven days, an authorized employee may cause the ship and the tackle, apparel and furniture thereof arrested to be sold and out of the proceeds of such sale he may retain the amount of any harbour charges which are owing and the expenses of the detention and sale thereof, and shall deliver the balance, if any, to the person responsible, under this Act, for the payment of such harbour charges.
   (3) Where any ship, in respect of which harbour charges are owing and have not been secured to the satisfaction of an authorized employee, leaves any harbour and enters or is in any other harbour then such ship may be dealt with as if the harbour charges so owing and not secured were harbour charges owing in respect of such other harbour.

30. The proper officer of customs of any harbour may refuse to give the master of any ship in such harbour outward clearance until -
(a) all harbour rates and charges due in respect of the ship, and all penalties and expenses to which the ship and her master are liable under this Act, have been paid or secured to the satisfaction of an authorized employee;

(b) he has received a certificate from an authorized employee stating that the master has complied with the provisions of this Act.

31(1) An authorized employee may -

(a) remove any obstruction to a harbour or its approaches or any boat, timber, raft or other harbour thing floating in a harbour which endangers or obstructs, or is likely to endanger or obstruct, the free navigation of the harbour or the use of any wharf or dock therein;

(b) in case of urgent necessity, take any action in a harbour which in his opinion may be necessary to prevent any danger to life or shipping;

(c) enter upon any ship or into any building in a harbour if it is necessary for him so to do in the performance of any duty under this Act or if he has reasonable grounds for believing that an offence against this Act has been, or is about to be committed therein.

(2) The owner of any thing removed by an authorized employee under subsection (1)(a) shall, without prejudice to any other action which may be taken against him, be liable to pay the reasonable expenses of such removal; and such thing may be detained by such employee until such expenses are paid.

(3) Where any thing is removed under subsection (1)(a) and the expenses of removal have not been paid within seven days of such removal, the Corporation may sell such thing by public auction and may out of the proceeds of sale retain the expenses of such removal, detention and sale and shall deliver the balance, if any, to the person appearing to the Director - General to be entitled thereto.

(4) The provisions of this section are in addition to, and not in derogation of, the provisions of any law relating to wreck.

32(1) A health officer may board any ship in a harbour and -

(a) medically examine any person therein;

(b) inspect the provisions, medicines and accommodation therein.
(c) require the master to produce the log-book and any other documents which such health officer may think necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the state of health of person therein and the master shall produce such log-book or documents;

(d) question any person therein for the purpose of ascertaining the state of health of such person;

(e) prohibit any person therein who appears to be infected with, or who has been exposed to the risk of infection of, any infectious or contagious disease from leaving such ship or cause any such person to be landed and detained in any hospital or quarantine station.

(2) In this section the expression "health officer" means a medical practitioner appointed under any law to discharge the duties of a health officer at a harbour or some other person as may be deputed to perform port health duties by the Port Health Officer.

33(1) Where the master of a ship from which any goods have been landed at a harbour and accepted by the Authority for handling or warehousing, or of delivery to the consignee notifies the Director-General in writing that freight or other charges to the amount specified in the notice, remain unpaid in respect of the goods, the Corporation may retain the goods and refuse delivery thereof to the consignee or any other person until -

(a) the production of a receipt for, or a release from the payment of such amount signed, or purporting to be signed, by or on behalf of the ship owner; or

(b) payment of such amount, together with any rates, charges and duties due in respect of such goods has been made by the person entitled to take delivery thereof.

(2) Where the Corporation delivers any goods in respect of which a notice has been given under subsection (1) to a person producing such receipt or release or making such payment as referred to in that subsection, the Corporation shall be freed from all liability to any person in respect of the goods.

(3) The Corporation shall be entitled to such charges as may be determined under this Act in respect of the custody of any goods delivered to it in accordance with this section and may do all such reasonable acts and incur such reasonable expenses as are necessary for the proper custody and preservation of the goods and shall have a lien on the goods for such charges and any other expenses so incurred.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring the Corporation to take into the custody of the Corporation any goods which would not otherwise be receivable by the Corporation under the provisions of the Act or as requiring the Corporation to inquire into the validity of any claim for freight or any other charges made in any notice given by any master under subsection (1).

34. The Corporation shall not be liable for any demurrage which may occur or be due on any ship however such demurrage may have been caused.

35. The master of a ship shall be responsible for the compliance in respect of such ship with the provisions of this Act, and, in the event of a contravention thereof, may be proceeded against and held responsible for such contravention.

36. The Corporation shall, in every harbour, maintain for the inspection of the master of any ship arriving at such harbour a copy of this Act, any harbour regulations made thereunder and of any law relating to quarantine.

PART VI

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE CORPORATION AS WAREHOUSEMAN

37. Subject to this Act, or of any contract, the Corporation shall not be liable for the loss, misdelivery or detention of, or damage to, goods delivered to, or in the custody of the Corporation except where such loss, misdelivery, detention or damage is caused by the want of reasonable foresight and care on the part of the Corporation or any employee:

Provided that -

(a) the Corporation shall in no case be liable for such loss, misdelivery, detention or damage arising from -

(i) act of God;
(ii) act of war;
(iii) seizure under legal process;
(iv) act or order of the Government;
(v) act or omission of the consignor, consignee, depositor or of the servant or agent any such person;
(vi) fire, flood, tempest, riots, civil commotions, strikes, lock-outs, stoppage or restraint of labour from whatever cause whether partial or general;
(vii) inherent liability to wastage in bulk or weight, latent or inherent defect, vice or natural deterioration;

(viii) deficiency in the contents of unbroken packages; or

(ix) insufficient or improper packing or leakage from defective drums, containers or packages;

(b) the liability of the Corporation for the loss, misdelivery or detention of or damage to goods accepted by the Corporation for warehousing in relation to which an account false in any material particular has been given under section 40(1) shall not in any case exceed the value of the goods as calculated in accordance with the description contained in such false account.

38. (1) The liability of the Corporation for any loss or misdelivery of, damage to or delay in the delivery of any goods deposited in a cloakroom shall not in any case exceed ten thousand shillings unless at the time of such deposit the person depositing the goods declared that the value thereof exceeded that amount and paid, or agreed to pay, such additional charge as may be determined in the Tariff Book in respect of such excess value; and thereupon the liability of the Corporation shall not in any case exceed such declared value.

(2) For the purpose of this section the expression “cloakroom” means any place provided by the Corporation as a facility for the temporary deposit of goods by persons using the services provided by the Corporation.

OPERATIONS OF THE CORPORATION

Goods

39. (1) The Corporation may, subject to this Act - determine the conditions upon which goods shall be handled or warehoused by the Corporation and different conditions may be determined in different cases; and such conditions shall be published in the Tariff Book and shall, subject as aforesaid, have effect from the date of such publication or from such later dates as may be specified therein;
(b) determine the rates and charges for the handling or warehousing of goods and for any other service or facility; and such rates and charges shall be published in the Tariff Book and shall, subject as aforesaid, have effect from the date of such publication or from such later date as may be specified therein.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) the Corporation may, in relation to the special circumstances of any particular case, determine conditions, rates and charges applicable to such case for the handling or warehousing of goods by the Corporation or for any other service or facility and such conditions, rates and charges shall have immediate effect in relation to such cases:

Provided that such conditions, rates and charges shall, if they are of a continuing nature, be available to the public on request.

40. (1) The consignor, or the person tendering, any goods to the Corporation for handling or warehousing, and on request by an authorized employee, the consignee of or person receiving, any goods which have been handled or warehoused by the Corporation, shall deliver to an authorized employee an account in writing signed by such consignor, person or consignee, as the case may be, containing such description of the goods as may be sufficient to enable such employee to determine the rates and charges payable in respect of the handling or warehousing thereof by the Corporation.

(2) Any authorized employee may, for the purpose of checking any account delivered under subsection (1), require such consignor, person or consignee, as the case may be, to permit him to examine such goods.

(3) If such consignor, person or consignee fails to deliver the account referred to in subsection (1), or to permit such goods to be examined as required under subsection (2), an authorized employee may refuse to accept the goods for such handling or warehousing unless in respect thereof a rate or charge not exceeding the highest rate or charge payable for any class of goods is paid; or in respect of goods which have been handled or warehoused the Corporation may refuse to deliver such goods unless in respect thereof a rate or charge not exceeding such highest rate of charge is paid.

(4) If, in respect of goods which have been handled or warehoused by the Corporation, an account delivered under subsection (1) is found to be false in any material particular with respect to the description of any goods to which it purports to relate, an authorized employee may refuse to deliver such goods unless, in respect of the handling or warehousing of such goods, a rate or charge not exceeding double the highest rate or charge payable for any class of goods is paid.

41. (1) Where any person fails to pay on demand made by
(2) Where any goods have been detained under subsection (1), the Corporation may, if the rate or charge due is not sooner paid, sell by public auction sufficient of such goods to produce the rate or charge so owing and all the expenses of such detention and sale; and in the case of -

(a) perishable goods, such auction may take place at once; or

(b) any other goods, such auction may take place on the expiration of at least fifteen day's notice published in one or more local newspapers, of the intended auction:

Provided that no imported goods shall be sold under this section until they have been entered for home consumption in accordance with the provisions of the customs laws.

(3) The Corporation may, out of the proceeds of any sale effected under subsection (2), retain a sum equal to the rate or charge due and the expenses of the detention and sale; and shall deliver the balance, if any, of such proceeds together with such of the goods, if any, as remain unsold to the person appearing to the Director-General to be entitled thereto:

Provided that if such person fails, after notice so to do, to remove within a reasonable time the goods, if any remaining unsold, the Corporation may sell such goods and dispose of the proceeds of such sale in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the right of the Corporation to recover any such rate or charge, or any part thereof, by any other lawful means.

42. (1) Where any goods in the possession of the Corporation are not claimed by the owner or any other person appearing to the Corporation to be entitled thereto, the Corporation shall, if such owner or person is known, take all reasonable steps to cause a notice to be served upon him requiring him to remove the goods.

(2) If -

(a) the owner of any goods in the possession of the Corporation is not known and no person appears to be entitled thereto; or

(b) the notice referred to in subsection (1) cannot for any reason be served; or

(c) there has been a non-compliance with the provisions of any notice served under subsection (1), the Corporation may, within a reasonable time not being less (except in the case of perishable goods) than three months, sell the good and dispose of the proceeds of sale thereof.

Provided that no imported goods shall be sold under this section until they have been entered or home consumption in accordance with the provisions of the customs laws.

Indemnity
where goods claimed by two persons, etc.

43. where-

(a) any goods, or the process of the sale of any goods, are in the possession of the Corporation and such goods, are claimed by two or more persons; or

(b) any person claiming any goods in the possession of the Corporation does not produce the documents showing that he is entitled to take delivery thereof, the Corporation may withhold delivery of such goods, or proceeds, until the person appearing to the Director-General to be entitled thereto has given an indemnity to his satisfaction against the claim of any other person with respect to such goods or proceeds.

Dangerous
or offensive goods, etc.

44. (1) No person shall tender to the Corporation for handling or warehousing any goods to which this section applies without giving notice of the nature of such goods to the employee to whom such goods are so tendered.

(2) An authorized employee may-

(a) refuse to accept such goods for handling or warehousing or accept them only under, and in accordance with, any special provisions dealing with the handling or warehousing of any such goods;

(b) require any such goods to be marked and packed in such manner as he may reasonable direct;

(3) Where any authorized employee has reason to believe that any goods to which this section applies are being handled, or warehoused, or have been accepted for handling or warehousing, in contravention of subsection (1) or subsection (2), he may examine such goods and if, on examination, they are found to be goods to which this section applies he may order their removal from any vehicle of, or premises occupied by, the Corporation.

(4) Goods to which this section applies are any dangerous or offensive goods and any goods which are likely to cause damage to person or property.

(5) Nothing in this section shall derogate from the provisions of any law relating to the possession or transport of explosives, petroleum, fire arms or ammunition.

General

45. (1) The Corporation shall cause to be prepared and published in such manner as it may think fit -

(a) a Tariff Book containing all matters which under the this Act are required to be contained therein together with such other matters as, under this Act, may be determined by the Corporation and such other matters as the Corporation may think fit;

(b) such other books and other documents as under this Act are required to be kept.

(2) There shall be available for public inspection at every harbour office a copy of the Tariff Book containing all amendments for the time being in force.

Accidents

46. Where any accident occurs in any harbour, then if that accident -

(a) is attended, or is of a kind usually attended, with loss of human life or with serious injury to any person or property;

(b) involves any collision between ships or vehicles carrying passengers;

(c) is of such other kind as the Minister may specify, the Director-General shall, as soon as practicable, give notice of the occurrence of such accident to the Board and, in the case of any such accident involving injury to any person, also to the police station or administrative authority nearest to the scene of such accident.

47. (1) The Minister or the Board may order such inquiry into any accident which occurs in any harbour as it may think fit.

(2) The Board shall submit to the Minister a report on such accident setting out inter alia the probable cause of such accident and the steps, if any, which have been taken, or it has directed shall be taken, with a view to avoiding a repetition thereof.

(3) The Director-General shall make to the Board a return, in such form and at such intervals as the Board may direct, of all accidents occurring in any harbour whether or not any such accident is attended with injury to any person.

48. Sections 46 and 47 shall not apply where, in respect of any shipping casualty under any law relating to merchant shipping, a formal investigation is held under any such law.

particular:

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not less than one hundred thousand Shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

51. Any person who makes, either knowingly or recklessly, any statement which is false in any material particular in any return, claim or other document which is required or authorized to be made for the purposes of the Corporation under this Act shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not less than one hundred and fifty thousand Shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

52. (1) Any person who, in contravention of section 44 delivers any goods to which that section applies to the Corporation for handling or warehousing shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not less than three hundred thousand Shillings or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or both such fine and such imprisonment.

(2) Any person who is convicted of an offence under this section shall also be responsible for any loss, injury or damage which may be caused by reason of such goods or having been so delivered to the Corporation for handling warehousing; and the court which convicts such offender may order him to pay the amount of any such loss, injury or damage to the person suffering it and in default of such paymen may impose a further term of imprisonment not exceeding one year.

53. Any master of a ship who contravenes any of the provisions of section 26, section 27 or 32 (1), or produces any document or gives any information which is false in any material particular shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not less than three hundred thousand Shillings or in default of payment thereof to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

54. If, after a pilot has offered his services, any ship

(a) request the officer in charge of such harbour to relieve such employee from his duties as soon as practicable; and

(b) refrain from arresting such employee until he is so relieved and shall, until he is so relieved, take all necessary steps to ensure that such employee does not escape.

(2) Where any request is made to the officer in charge of a harbour under this section, it shall be his duty to relieve the employee in respect of whom the request is made with the least possible delay.

58. (1) Any person who commits any offence mentioned in section 49, 50 or 55 may be arrested without warrant by any authorized employee of the Corporation or police officer and shall thereupon, with the least possible delay, be taken before a magistrate having jurisdiction to try him or to commit him for trial.

(2) Any person who commits any offence under this Act, other than an offence mentioned is subsection (1), may be arrested without warrant by any authorized employee of the Corporation or police officer if -

(a) there is reason to believe that such person will abscond, or

(b) he refuses on demand to give his name and address, or

(c) there is reason to believe that the name or address given by him is incorrect, and shall thereupon, with the least possible delay, be taken before a magistrate having jurisdiction to try him or commit him for trial:

Provided that, save where there is reason to believe that such person will abscond, he shall if his true name and address are ascertained, be released on his executing a bond without sureties for his appearance before a magistrate when required.

(3) Any person who commits any of the offences set out in section 50 or section 52 may be required by any authorized employee of the Corporation or police officer to leave the premises occupied by the Corporation or the ship or vehicle thereof, as the case may be, in which such person is at time of the commission of the offence; and if such person fails to comply with such requirement he may be removed therefrom with such force as may be reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

(4) Any person charged with any offence under this Act may be proceeded against, tried and punished in any place in which he may be in custody for that offence as if the offence had been committed in such place; and the offence shall for all purposes incidental to, or consequent upon, the prosecution, trial or punishment thereof be deemed to have been committed in that place:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude the prosecution, trial and punishment of such person in any place in which, but for the provisions of this section, such person might have been prosecuted, tried and punished.
PART IX

MISCELLANEOUS

Staff

59  (1) Subject to this Act, the Board may appoint such employee of the Corporation as may be necessary for its efficient working under such terms and conditions, including conditions relating to discipline and dismissal, as it, may think fit.

(2) The Board may, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, delegate its powers under subsection (1) to a committee of the Board, the Director-General or any employee of the Corporation.

(3) The Director-General may, by notice in writing authorize any employee appointed under this section to maintain order upon any premises occupied by the Corporation, or in any harbour of the Corporation, and any employee so authorized shall in the performance of such duty, have all the powers, rights, privileges and protection of a police officer.

60.  (1) Subject to this Act, the Minister may make regulations generally relating to the conditions of service of employees and of the foregoing and particular, but without prejudice to the generality may make regulations relating to -

Composition of Board

1.(1) The Board shall consist of -

(a) a Chairman, who shall be appointed by the President;

(b) the Director-General;

(c) not less than five but not more than nine other members, who shall be appointed by the Minister.

(2) When appointing members under paragraph (1)(c), due regard shall be paid to the experience and involvement of the person in commerce, industry, agriculture, finance or administration.

Vice-Chairman

2. The members of the Board shall elect a member from amongst themselves to be the Vice-Chairman of the Board, and any member elected as Vice-Chairman shall, subject to his continuing to be a member, hold office for a term of one year from the date of his election, and shall be eligible for re-election.

Tenure of appointment

3.(1) A member of the Board, other than the Director-General shall, unless his appointment is sooner terminated by the appointing authority, or he ceases in any other way to be a member, hold office for a period of three years from the date of his appointment and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(2) Any member of the Board, other than the Director-General, may at any time resign his office by giving notice in writing addressed to the appointing authority and from the date specified in the notice or, if no date is so specified, from the date of the receipt of the notice by the appointing authority, he shall cease to be a member.

4. When any member of the Board, other than the Director
- General, is by reason of absence from the United Republic or illness or other sufficient cause unable to perform his duties as a member of the Board, the appointing authority may appoint a temporary member in his place, and the temporary member shall hold office until the resumption of duty of the substantive member or until the term of office of the substantive member expires, whichever occurs first.

5. (1) The Board shall ordinarily meet for the transaction of business at the time and at the places decided upon by the Board, but shall meet at least once every two months.

(2) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, may at any time call a special meeting of the Board, and shall call a special meeting upon a written request by a majority of the members of the Board in office.

(3) The Chairman, or in his absence the Vice-Chairman, shall preside at every meeting of the Board. In the absence of both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman the members present shall appoint a member from amongst themselves to preside over the meeting.

6. The quorum at a meeting of the Board shall be the majority of the members in office.

7. (1) Questions proposed at a meeting of the Board shall be by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes the person presiding shall have a second or casting vote.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1), a decision may be made by the Board without a meeting by circulation of the relevant papers among the members of the Board, and the expression of the views of the majority of the members of the Board in writing, but any member shall be entitled to require that the decision be deferred and the subject-matter be considered at a meeting of the Board.

8. The Board shall cause to be recorded and kept minutes of all proceedings of its meetings, and the minutes of each meeting of the Board shall be confirmed by the Board at the next meeting and signed by the Chairman of the meeting.

9. The validity of any act or proceeding of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy among its members or by any defect in the appointment of any of them.
10. (1) The application of the official seal of the Corporation, shall be authenticated by two signatures, namely -

(a) the signature of the Chairman of the Board or some other member of the Board, other than the Director-General authorized by the Board in that behalf; and

(b) the signature of the Director-General or some other employee of the Corporation authorized by the Board to act for that purpose in place of the Director-General.

(2) Any instrument or contract which, if executed or entered into by a person other than a body corporate would not be required to be under seal, may be executed or entered into on behalf of the Corporation by the Director-General or any other member of the Board if that member has previously been authorized, either specifically or generally by resolution of the Board to execute or enter into that particular instrument or contract or that class of instruments or contracts.

(3) Every document purporting to be a document executed or issued by or on behalf of the Corporation and to be -

(a) sealed with the official seal of the Corporation authenticated in the manner provided by sub-paragraph (1); or

(b) signed by the Director General or by a member of the Board authorized in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) to act for that purpose, shall be deemed to be so executed or issued until the contrary is proved.

11. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the Board may regulate its own proceedings.

12. Any document purporting to be a document duly executed or issued under the seal of the Corporation or on behalf of the Corporation shall be received in evidence and be deemed to be a document so executed or issued (as the case may be) without further proof unless the contrary is shown.
